

CLOSE PROTECTION

CLOSE PROTECTION

You don't have to live with the fear of harm or unwanted attention, our close protection operatives can provide a seamless security partition from any threats against you.

OUR SERVICE

We are unwavering in our commitment to executing a world-class close protection service.

If you find yourself in the position of requiring close protection operatives to protect you and your loved ones it can be alarming. We are skilled in navigating these uncertain and vulnerable times with you, ensuring we find the right operatives that you can trust and feel secure with.

Our protection service is customer-focused, not only for the highest level of safety but also with the utmost discretion and quality management. Our service is distinctive for being fully bespoke, we create a complete service around you, your needs, and what fits your unique situations. We pride ourselves in putting together an individualised response for every client and delivering genuine results.

All members of our close protection teams undergo rigorous recruitment checks and have impeccable former careers in the Police or military, licensed under the Security Industry Authority (SIA), and fully vetted under UK Law Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).
